

Ira Malhar

Singer-songwriter · Mumbai

Ira Malhar is a Mumbai singer-songwriter who writes in Hindi and English about cities, rain and leaving home. Her 2026 album Monsoon Letters has passed a million streams.

Sound: Hindi and English songs on guitar and harmonium, with soft electronic textures

Latest release: album Monsoon Letters (2026), 9 tracks

Earlier: EP Local Train, 6:10 (2024)

1.2M	140+	22	4
streams	shows	cities	countries

So far

> "The quietest voice in the room, and the one everybody leans in to hear."
>
> Meera Joshi, The Indie Ledger

> "She held a festival crowd of four thousand with just a harmonium."
>
> Tanvi Gokhale, Gully Notes

Live formats

Solo	Ira on guitar and harmonium. 45–60 min
Trio	+ keys and percussion. 60–75 min
Full band	+ bass and drums, 5 on stage. 75–90 min

Management and booking: Kite Hill Artists, Mumbai epk.demo.mindloftlabs.com/#book

Send a booking request

Demo site by Mindloft Labs. Ira Malhar is a fictional artist.